Re: The application of Union Oil Company of California (Union Oil), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Chevron Corporation, for a spacing exception to allow the drilling, completion, gas storage regular production of the Happy Valley 13 gas well within 3,000 feet of a well capable of producing from the same pool within the Deep Creek Unit, Happy Valley Participating Area.

Union Oil, by a letter dated June 28, 2007 and received by the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission (Commission) on June 28, 2007 has requested an order allowing an exception to the spacing requirements of 20 AAC 25.055 (a)(4) to allow drilling, completion, and regular production of the Happy Valley (“HV”) 13 gas well within 3,000 feet of a well capable of producing from the same pool within Deep Creek Unit, Happy Valley Participating Area (“PA”). The surface location of the proposed well is 2927 feet from the north line (FNL) and 331 feet from the east line (FEL) of Section 21, T2S, R13W, Seward Meridan (“S.M.”). The proposed bottom hole location is 4322’ FNL and 1927’ FWL, Section 21, T2S, R13W, S.M.

The Commission has tentatively scheduled a public hearing on this application for August 7, 2007 at 9:00 am at the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission at 333 West 7th Avenue, Suite 100, Anchorage, Alaska 99501. A person may request that the tentatively scheduled hearing be held by filing a written request with the Commission no later than 4:30 pm on July 19, 2007.

If a request for a hearing is not timely filed, the Commission will consider the issuance of an order without a hearing. To learn if the Commission will hold the public hearing, please call 793-1221 after July 31, 2007.

In addition, a person may submit written comments regarding this application to the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission at 333 West 7th Avenue, Suite 100, Anchorage, Alaska 99501. Written comments must be received no later than 4:30 pm on August 6, 2007 except that if the Commission decides to hold a hearing, written protest or comments must be received no later than the conclusion of the August 7, 2007 hearing.
